

Clinical & Professional Supervision

Looking for a supervisor?

Hi! I'm David Lawson and I'm an accredited supervisor with QCA, CCAA, PACFA and ACA.

I have been in the people-helping profession for 18 years and have trained both as a counsellor and a professional life coach (I am a member of the International Coach Federation and several other coaching associations).

The supervision I provide is delivered face to face, by phone or by Skype during the day, at night or on Saturdays.

I currently provide supervision to:

- Chaplains
- Counsellors
- Managers
- Teachers
- Support Workers

I also provide critical incident debriefs to individuals or teams that have been impacted by a workplace accident, death or suicide.

Being based in rural Queensland as well as operating in Private Practice, I offer a unique perspective to help my supervisees grow themselves and their businesses professionally. I know firsthand the challenges of working outside a metropolitan area.

As your supervisor my aims are: to support you to be the best you can be for your client; to provide a safe learning environment to explore your vulnerability; to validate you professionally; and to grow your self-awareness.

My website is www.findingthelight.com.au and my phone number is 0407 585 497.

Supervision fee is $80 including GST per 60 minute session.

Please contact me by email David@findingthelight.com.au or phone or SMS 0407 585 497 to arrange a time to discover how I can add value to your supervision.
